² Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Order shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Supplemental Application.

Thornton, attached to the Supplemental Application as Exhibit 2 (the “First Supplemental Werth Declaration”), and this Court having jurisdiction to consider the Supplemental Application and the relief requested therein in accordance with 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a)-(b) and 1334(b) and the Amended Standing Order of Reference M-431, dated January 31, 2012 (Preska, C.J.); and consideration of the Supplemental Application and the relief requested therein being a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); and venue being proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and notice of the Supplemental Application having been provided to the Notice Parties, and such notice having been adequate and appropriate under the circumstances; and there being no objections to the Supplemental Application; it appearing that no other or further notice or a hearing is required; and the Court having considered the Initial Retention Application and all exhibits attached thereto, the First Supplemental Werth Declaration filed with the Supplemental Application; and the Court having determined Grant Thornton does not hold or represent an adverse interest to the Debtors or their estates, that it is disinterested under 11 U.S.C. § 101(14), and that the relief sought in the Supplemental Application is necessary and in the best interests of the Debtors, their creditors, and all parties in interest, and that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Supplemental Application establish just cause for the relief granted herein; now, therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Supplemental Application is granted as set forth herein.
2. The Debtors are authorized to supplement the retention and employment of Grant Thornton as valuation and tax analysis consultants to the Debtors with respect to the Supplemental Services, effective September 1, 2021, and Grant Thornton is authorized to perform the Supplemental Services described in the Supplemental Application and the Supplemental SOWs.

3. Grant Thornton shall file fee applications for allowance of its compensation and reimbursement of its expenses with respect to Supplemental Services rendered in these chapter 11 cases with this Court in accordance with 11 U.S.C. §§ 330 and 331, as the case may be, and the applicable Bankruptcy Rules, Local Rules, and fee and expense guidelines and orders of this Court and during these cases shall be compensated and reimbursed for such Services only upon an order of this Court granting a proper application therefor.

4. Notwithstanding the entry of this Order, the terms and conditions of the Initial Retention Order and all related agreements approved thereunder shall remain in full force and effect and shall apply to the Supplemental Services except as otherwise expressly set forth herein.

5. The relief granted herein shall be binding upon any chapter 11 trustee appointed in any of these chapter 11 cases or upon any chapter 7 trustee appointed in the event of a subsequent conversion of any of the chapter 11 cases to cases under chapter 7.

6. Notice of the Supplemental Application as provided therein is good and sufficient notice of such Supplemental Application and the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

7. Notwithstanding any provision in the Bankruptcy Rules to the contrary, the terms and conditions of this Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

8. The Debtors are authorized to take all reasonable actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Order in accordance with the Supplemental Application.

9. In the event of any inconsistency between the Supplemental Application or the Supplemental SOWs and this Order, the terms of this Order, including this Order's incorporation of sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, shall govern.

10. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Order.
